

Dear Grace Girl,

God has uniquely designed you for purpose.

Therefore negotiate your journey well, confront your confinement.

Don't let mediocre be a part of your world but flavour it with passion.

There are opportunities in life God throws your way so use your life for the betterment of others.

Step up to the next level, set your goals higher, have faith in God's ability within because it's up to you and me to colour this beautiful planet with the goodness of God

Love, Pastor Di xx
